

Faith Group Questions

Address the Mess (Part 3): What's Your Story?

1. Share one or more takeaways the Holy Spirit gave you through this message.
2. Read 1 Samuel 24:1-2. Before this, Saul had already attempted to kill David multiple times. In your opinion, was King Saul worthy of anyone's respect? Why or why not?
3. Read 1 Samuel 24:3-7. Did David believe Saul was worthy of his respect? Why or why not?
4. Although David's emotions and his well-meaning friends temporarily distracted him with thoughts of vengeance, he was able to realign his thoughts with God's thoughts and avoid making a huge mistake. Using the internet or your concordance, search for Bible passages about what God says concerning vengeance, revenge and paying back evil with evil.
5. David was able to endure his long, drawn out messes because he held on to God's calling to be the next king of Israel. What are some of God's callings on your life and how can embracing them help you navigate current and future messes?