Car Conversations

1. Think back to a situation when it was hard to show self-control. What made it difficult?
2. What is a promise of God that gives you comfort when you are tempted?
3. Think about specific temptations that you face. List them, and then review the list by saying aloud, "The Spirit is greater than (name your temptation)." Repeat this statement with each temptation you identified. Pray, thanking God for his Spirit who lives in you through faith in Jesus who strengthens you against these temptations.
