

Faith Group Questions

When You Pray (Part 1): Our Father In Heaven

1. Who's your oldest/most trusted friend that you feel like you can tell them anything?

2. Write down one or more takeaways from Sunday's message.

3. Read Matthew 6:5-9. Prayer is a back-and-forth conversation between you and God. With that in mind, how would you describe your prayer life?
  - a. What are the biggest challenges you face to having a relational prayer life with God?

  - b. Based on these verses, how would you like to modify your prayer life?

4. In Matthew 6, Jesus emphasizes that God is your Father. Why is it important for you to understand that your Heavenly Father is the perfection and not the reflection of your earthly father?

Car Conversations

1. When is it difficult to be gentle?
2. How did Jesus respond to the woman caught in sin? How does God respond to you when you sin? Why?
3. Think of a challenge in your family or community. Which fruit (or fruits) of the Spirit would help to address the problem? Pray for the Spirit's power and an opportunity to live out this fruit.
