

Growth Group Questions

The Politics of Jesus

1. What did you learn about God and what did you learn about yourself from the message based on Titus 3?

2. What does "The Separation of Church and State" actually mean?

3. What sometimes makes it difficult for you to show kindness and love to people that don't share your same moral or political views?

4. Read Titus 3:1-7. It's probable that you don't agree with some of your elected officials', and you definitely interact with people who do not share your same political or moral values? According to these verses, how does God call you to interact with and talk about such people and what should be your driving motivation?
 - a. Discuss practical ways to carry on a conversation with someone that you're not in agreement with so that you can ultimately talk to them about Jesus.

5. Read Titus 3:8. During this election season how are you, with God's help, going to dedicate yourself to doing good?

Car Conversations

Keep the conversation with your kids going using these questions based on the Faith Kids' lesson.

1. What is the hardest thing you've done?
2. What was Jesus' strategy to defeat Satan?
3. What did Satan finally do after Jesus kept speaking God's Word?
4. What does this story teach you about who Jesus is?
5. Jesus could have done whatever he wanted, but he submitted to what God wanted and won the battle against temptation. How can we submit (or surrender) what we want for what God wants?