

Growth Group Questions

This Is The Bible Part 1: How to Interpret the Bible

1. In 2 Peter 1:12-15, the author emphasizes the importance of being reminded of certain truths. How does this passage inspire you to regularly reflect on and reinforce your faith in God for daily living?
2. According to 2 Peter 1:19, the Scriptures are described as a "lamp shining in a dark place." How does this metaphor encourage you to seek guidance and wisdom from God's Word, especially in times of uncertainty and confusion?
3. In this passage, Peter warns against false prophets and false teachings. How can you apply this message to discern and evaluate the messages and teachings you encounter in our modern society? What principles can you adopt to safeguard yourself against deception?
4. 2 Peter 1:16-21 highlights the authenticity and reliability of the Scriptures as the inspired word of God. How does this assurance impact your understanding of the Bible and your commitment to studying and applying its teachings to your life?

(The following questions are based on John 20:30-31)

- 1. What do you think makes the Bible so special?

- 2. What Good News do you think you can find in the Bible?

- 3. If you had to give a book report on the Bible, what would you say it's about?

- 4. When you follow Jesus, how can the Bible help you play a part in God's good story?