Fire from Heaven Part 1: The LORD Provides

1. In 1 Kings 17:1, Elijah declares a drought upon the land as a result of God's judgment. This raises the question: How do we reconcile the concept of God's divine judgment with our understanding of his love and mercy?

2. In 1 Kings 17, Elijah demonstrated contentment and trust in God's provision. How can you apply his example to your own life?
  1. How has God provided for you in the past in the midst of challenges and uncertainties?

  2. Why can remembering these events help you cultivate a spirit of contentment no matter if you're well fed or hungry (see Philippians 4:10-20)?

3. What parallels do you see between Jesus' ministry and Elijah's?
