

Be Still and Know Part 6: "Let God be God"

1. Read Job 42:1-6. How do these verses describe God's sovereignty and our human limitations?
 - a. Identify a situation in your life where you, like Job, have had to acknowledge God's sovereignty in the midst of suffering?
2. How does Job's response to God in verses 1-6 reflect humility and repentance?
 - a. How can you apply this same humility and repentance in your daily life?
3. Read Job 42:7-9. In what ways does Job's role as an intercessor for his friends mirror Jesus' role as the ultimate mediator between us and God?
 - a. How can these verses help guide your actions when dealing with friends who have wronged you?
4. Read Job 42:10-16. How does Job's restoration symbolize the hope and redemption we find in Jesus Christ, especially in the context of overcoming trials and experiencing spiritual renewal?

Joshua 1:9, "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go."

1. When was a time in your life that you felt alone?
2. Why does the enemy want us to feel alone?
3. What should we do if we feel alone?
4. When Peter felt alone, Jesus was with Him and rescued him. How does God show us that He is with us?
5. How can we be sure that God will NEVER leave us alone?
6. Who is someone you can encourage with this message in your life?
